

Chapter	Contents	Page No
I	Introduction	1
	The Industrial Revolution-Interpretations from 1830	1
	Labour Movement in Revolutionary Period	13
	The Workers Movement from 1848 to 1917-From Independence to Power	15
	Literature of a Revolutionary Period	19
	Assess the Role of Government in the Piece of Literature	24
	Karl Marx and Frederick Engels	28
II	Labour Movement in Revolutionary Period	39
	Capitalism	39
	The Experience of 1848-51	44
	In The Poverty of Philosophy, Marx Wrote	44
	Experience of the Paris Commune of 1871. Marx's Analysis	50
	Controversy with the Anarchists	51
	The Transition from Capitalism to Communism	52
III	Idealistic Concept on Marxism, Leninism and Capitalism	56
	Marx, Engels and Lenin on the British Workers' Movement	56
	The Origins of Capitalism	60
	The Dynamics of Capitalism	61
	Colonialism	63
	Labour Aristocracy	65
IV	Criticism on Labor Movement by Writers, Poets	70
	Labor Criticism by Writers	70
	Literature & Poets	71
	Elizabeth Barrett Browning: Social and Political Issues	75
	Rise of Conservatism within the Second Republic	75
	Class Struggles within the Revolution	78
	End of the Revolution in France	79
	Charles Dickens : Social Commentator and Critic	80

The Novel a Repository of Social Conscience	81
The Condition of England	82
Dickens and Society	89
Bleak House based on Some Critical Approaches in Analysis based on Marxism Criticism	90
Marxist and Dickens: Great Expectations from Money and Class Mobility	91
Russian Literature	95
From the 14th to the 17th Century	96
Imperial Literature	99
The Westernization of Russia	99
The Response of Writers and Critics	100
The 18th Century	100
Catherine II the Great	101
Poetry	102
Drama and Prose Fiction	103
The 19th Century	103
The “Golden Age” of Poetry	104
Aleksandr Pushkin	104
Lermontov and Griboyedov	105
Nikolay Gogol	105
Other Poets and Dramatists	106
Leo Tolstoy	106
Ivan Turgenev	107
Anton Chekhov	107
The Silver Age	108
Symbolists	108
Acmeists and Futurists	109
V Labour Transition and Global Issues	111
The Spontaneity of the Masses and the Consciousness of the Social-Democrats	111

	How Martynov Rendered Plekhanov More Profound	122
	Organisation of Workers and Organisation of Revolutionaries	131
VI	Observation and Conclusion	137
	Observation	137
	Conclusion	138
	References	139